Executive Summary

Inclusion and accessibility, continues to be embedded into the work of the Ministry of Finance (MOF). This annual accessibility plan provides MOF with the opportunity to highlight how the ministry is working to embed inclusion into all programs, practices and policies.

MOF strives to be an inclusive organization that delivers excellent public service to the people of Ontario and enables all employees to achieve their full potential. It recognizes that good public service is inclusive and accessible public service.

Becoming an inclusive organization necessitates, among other things, becoming an accessible organization. Efforts around accessibility, as well as mental health, diversity and health and wellness, will support the ministry in becoming more inclusive.

Over the past year, the Ministry of Finance has made strides towards becoming a more accessible and inclusive organization. The ministry continued to not only meet its obligations under both the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) through the Customer Service Standards and the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulations (IASR), but acted as a leader within the organization by designing and implementing an audit of its accessibility practices, among other things.

Although progress has been made, there is still more work to be done. As outlined in this year’s Accessibility Plan, the ministry continues to move towards a more accessible and inclusive organization, as well as to provide more accessible and inclusive services. Each of the commitments, outlined below for 2014-2015, bring the ministry closer to its goal of becoming an inclusive organization that delivers excellent public service to the people of Ontario and enables all employees to achieve their full potential.
Introduction

Under the Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2001 (ODA), ministries are required to produce, and make available to the public, annual plans that identify how ministries will identify and remove barriers to accessibility.

The ODA Accessibility Plan (the Plan) is an opportunity to showcase our ministry’s accomplishments and to demonstrate how we are modeling compliance with our regulated accessibility requirements.

In 2010, the Ministry of Finance began complying with the first accessibility standard established under the AODA - Accessibility Standards for Customer Service. In 2011, the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation (IASR) was introduced, establishing phased-in requirements in the following accessibility standards:

- Information and Communications;
- Employment;
- Transportation; and,
- Design of Public Spaces

Each year, the Ontario Public Service (OPS) as an obligated organization, confirms its compliance with the requirements of these standards to the Accessibility Directorate of Ontario. The Plan provides an opportunity for our ministry to go beyond confirming compliance with these regulated minimum requirements. Specifically, the Plan allows us to highlight the measures taken by our ministry to identify and remove barriers in the previous year while proposing measures for the coming year that will make our ministry more accessible.

The IASR establishes that obligated organizations, shall create and maintain a multi-year accessibility plan (MYAP) that outlines the organization’s strategies to prevent and remove barriers to accessibility. To meet the MYAP requirement, the OPS released Leading the Way Forward in 2012.

Organizations are also required to develop an annual status report that highlights progress in advancing the MYAP strategy and in meeting the requirements of the IASR. In 2013, the OPS released its first Annual Status Report, highlighting progress made in 2012.

The Ministry of Finance’s 2014 ODA Plan demonstrates how the measures our ministry has taken in the past and proposed for the coming years support the key outcomes and deliverables of the MYAP.

Section Three: Addressing the identification of barriers

In support of our commitment to improve accessibility for people with disabilities, the Ministry of Finance will continue to review government initiatives, including Acts, regulations, policies, programs, practices and services for the purposes of identifying and removing barriers.

Recognizing the importance of addressing accessibility barriers in laws that have a high impact on members of the public and persons with disabilities, the government is following a three-pronged strategy that prioritizes the review of high impact legislation including:

1. Development of a standardized process and tools for identifying and addressing accessibility barriers;
2. By the end of 2014, review of 51 targeted high-impact statutes that meet the following criteria:
   a. Statutes that affect persons with disabilities directly;
   b. Statutes that provide for the delivery of widely applicable services or programs;
   c. Statutes that provide benefits or protections; or
   d. Statutes that affect a democratic or civic right or duty; and
3. Review procedural rules, policies and guidelines for select high-impact legislation, where necessary.

In 2014, the OPS made significant progress in conducting this phase of the review which is estimated to be completed by the end of 2014.

The Ontario Guaranteed Annual Income Act was identified as a high impact statute and was reviewed in 2014. The government had decided to review this statute because it is anticipated that changes in this area will have the highest impact on those Ontarians who have accessibility needs. This review process used the OPS Inclusion Lens to help identify barriers to persons with disabilities.

Through the review process of the Ontario Guaranteed Annual Income Act, potential barriers and mitigating strategies were identified. This information was provided to MAG and MGS, in an effort to coordinate pursuant actions.
