Reason for Claiming Exemption
(Please check appropriate box or provide alternative explanation below)

I claim exemption from the Debt Retirement Charge under the provisions of the Electricity Act, 1998 because I am a:

- Band, within the meaning of the Indian Act (Canada), and electricity purchased or acquired will be consumed on a reserve by the band foreign state or international organization which is exempt from retail sales tax under section 7(5) of the Retail Sales Tax Act and all electricity purchased or acquired will be consumed by this organization collector purchasing or acquiring electricity for resale self-generating user meeting all of the following requirements:
- entitled to an annual exemption
- a market participant billed by IMO
- does not generate electricity primarily for sale to another user and
- has both a registered generation facility and a registered load facility.

If you are a market participant who issues this Exemption Certificate and settles with the IMO all delivery points will be considered exempt unless you identify specific exempt delivery points below. You need only identify those delivery points where electricity (energy) will be withdrawn.
