

Low-Income Seniors and Low-Income Persons with Disabilities may apply for a partial deferral of provincial land and education taxes. The tax deferral applies to the tax increase in the current year and not to outstanding taxes.

This notice provides general information and does not replace the law found in the Provincial Land Tax Act, 2006 and its regulations.

Who Qualifies?

A low-income person with disabilities must be in receipt of:

- an increment paid under the Ontario Disability Support Program Act.

A low-income senior must be 65 years of age or older and in receipt of:

- an increment paid under the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS).

How the Program Works

- You must complete an application for this program each year to establish eligibility.
- The deadline for submitting an application is February 28 of the year following the taxation year to which the application relates. Only original, signed applications will be accepted. Faxed copies are not acceptable.
- Applicants must be owners of residential/farm property for a period of one (or more) year(s) preceding the application. The property must be your principal residence.
- The tax deferral applies to the tax increase in the current year and not to tax arrears or outstanding taxes.
- A lien will be registered on the property and all deferred taxes will be collected upon the sale of the property or if the owner becomes ineligible under the terms of the application.
- For properties jointly held or co-owned by persons (excluding spouses), both or all co-owners must qualify under applicable eligibility criteria in order to receive the tax deferral.
- Tax deferral amounts are not transferable to the estate of deceased owners.
- The applicant must agree to provide a complete application and supporting information to the Provincial Land Tax Office in order to demonstrate that eligibility requirements have been met.
